

Academic All-Canadian list, by year, by institution

Canadian Interuniversity Sport is proud to announce the student-athletes honoured as Desjardins Top 8 Academic All-Canadians for the 2006-07 season.

Click here for academic-all Canadian criteria

Every year, a growing number of CIS student-athletes are recognized as Academic All-Canadians, having maintained a grade point average (GPA) of 80 percent or better over the academic year while competing for one of their university's varsity teams. Once again in 2006-07, over 2,000 student-athletes reached the prestigious status.

Four CIS institutions had over 100 Academic All-Canadians last year including Laval (156), McGill (124), Queen's (119) and Alberta (102).

Among these outstanding individuals, one female and one male student-athlete from each of the four CIS regional associations are selected annually as Desjardins Top 8 Academic All-Canadians.

This year's recipients include Dalhousie University soccer player and biology student Katie Hollinshead of Calgary; UNB hockey player and Master's of business student Colin Sinclair of Brooks, Alta.; Montreal swimmer and communications and politics student Audrey Lacroix of Pont-Rouge, Que.; Sherbrooke pole vaulter and mechanical engineering student David Foley of Sherbrooke, Que.; Windsor cross country and track and field athlete and mathematics and statistics student Jacqueline Malette of Windsor, Ont.; Queen's cross country and track and field athlete and biochemistry student Justin Hall of London, Ont.; Manitoba volleyball player and pre-dentistry student Katie Davidson of Winnipeg; and Lethbridge hockey player and kinesiology student Jay Langager of Loreburn, Sask.

Jay Langager

Loreburn, Sask.

University of Lethbridge

Kinesiology

Hockey

Jay Langager received the Senator Joseph A. Sullivan Trophy as the top player in CIS men's hockey in 2006-07, in addition to claiming best-defenceman honours and the Dr. Randy Gregg Award (athletics, academics, community service) at the Canada West level. The top scoring defenceman in Canada West with 29 points in 27 conference games, the Pronghorn captain led Lethbridge to a 21-point improvement from 2005-06 and a first home playoff round in 13 years.

A CIS Academic All-Canadian each of his last two years at Lethbridge, Langager maintained a 3.88 GPA out of 4.00 in Education (Kinesiology) in 2006-07.